NLU DELHI-HSF INTERNATIONAL NEGOTIATION COMPETITION 2014

National Law University, Delhi (NLU, Delhi) and Herbert Smith Freehills (HSF) are pleased to invite you to the first edition of the NLU-HSF International Negotiation Competition (NNC) to be held on 12-14 September 2014 in Delhi.

The competition aims at providing an opportunity to law students of top universities to practice and improve their negotiation skills. It provides a platform for students to compete in a truly diverse and an international environment. The competition is carefully structured to simulate legal negotiations particularly for those students who aspire to be international lawyers.

Students participating in the competition will assume the roles of international lawyers in negotiating a series of legal problems. The problems will be based on real life examples and will comprise a common set of facts known by all participants and confidential information known only to the participants representing a particular side.

NNC is an invitation only competition.

Structure of the competition: 16 teams from across the globe will participate in the competition. There will be two preliminary rounds. Four teams will advance to the semi-finals, which will be knock-out rounds. The final round will take place between the winners of the two semi-finals. Each round will consist of a 60 or 90 minute negotiation session, which may be extended at the discretion of the judges, to make it akin to a real life experience.

Team composition: Each team will consist of two students.

Eligible students: All students who are enrolled in a full-time law degree (undergraduate or graduate) as on 1 September 2014 will be eligible to participate.

University representation: Only one team per University will be allowed to participate in the competition.

SCHEDULE

25 April 2014	Invitees to confirm participation
7 July 2014	Release of the Problems/ Negotiation Simulations
31 August 2014	Submission of the Negotiation Plan
12 September 2014	Registration and welcome address
13 September 2014	Preliminary rounds
14 September 2014	Semi-finals, finals and the awards ceremony

The participants will be informed sufficiently in advance if there is any change in the schedule.

Judging: Each round is judged by a panel of one to three judges. Judges will be chosen to be independent of the teams they are judging and will include renowned lawyers and academicians.

Prize: All participants will receive certificates of participation. The winners will receive a trophy to be held in their university and each member of the winning team will receive a cash prize. There will be an award for the best negotiator.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Expenses and accommodation: Each participant will be responsible for his or her own expenses. NLU, Delhi will provide accommodation, at its own cost, to the participants on the days of the competition.

Registration: Once you have confirmed participation, you will be requested to provide the team details.

Indian visa: International teams are recommended to apply for the Indian visa at least 8 weeks before the competition dates. The Indian visa requirements will vary from country-to-country, thus it is advisable to visit the Indian embassy's website of your country for further details. India has recently started the TVOA facility (Tourist visa on arrival) for select countries.

ABOUT DELHI

Delhi has been the seat of power in India for several rulers and many empires for about a millennium. The city's importance lies not just in its past glory as the seat of empires and magnificent monuments, but also in the rich and diverse cultures. Delhi is sprinkled with dazzling gems: captivating ancient monuments, fascinating museums and art galleries, architectural wonders, a vivacious performing-arts scene, fabulous eating places and bustling markets. Its excellent location, just a few hours from Taj Mahal, Rajasthan and the Himalayas, makes it an attractive destination for tourists across the globe. Delhi has also evolved as the education capital of the country with top institutions (such as the University of Delhi, Indian Institute of Technology, All India Institute of Medical Sciences, Jawaharlal Nehru University and the National Law University) making it their home.
